

The Director of Central Intelligence

Washington, D.C. 20505

17 October 1978

Dear Bobbie and Bob,

Can't tell you how much Pat and I enjoyed our visit with all of you at the Business Council last week. It seems to us each time we are privileged to come down to The Homestead we enjoy it more. We are particularly grateful to both of you for your hospitality, and we both enjoyed the Thursday night dinner especially. It was fun to meet some new people and to have an opportunity to visit in a relaxed way.

Next time I suspect I won't get as capable a tennis partner and will have to work much harder. I'll insist, however, that Patricia come and join the cheering section to offset Bobbie!

Again, many thanks. It was so nice to be with you both.

Yours,

STANSFIELD TURNER

STAT

Mr. and Mrs. Robert D. Stuart, Jr.

